FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RELATIONSHIPS BLOSSOM AT ARTHOUSE MEATH

ARTHOUSE Meath teams up with celebrity florist Vic Brotherson, owner of London flower boutique Scarlet & Violet, to create an exclusive romantic gift for the Valentine seeking a grand gesture with an individual style.

On Friday 12th and Saturday 13th February you will be able to buy a limited edition bouquet of beautiful Scarlet & Violet flowers arranged in fine bone china jugs featuring a unique ARTHOUSE Meath design from our high street shop in Godalming.

'The Relationship Jug' designed by talented ARTHOUSE Meath artist Sarah Harbott, sums up those vital ingredients that make a good relationship, from friendship and happiness to the other essentials like good coffee and a curry!

Previously featured in Vogue, Elle and Harpers Bazaar, Vic Brotherson, the owner of Scarlet & Violet Boutique has donated exclusive vintage flower bunches to be sold with each jug that are completely unique, beautiful and wonderfully bright.

If you are looking for the perfect valentine's card, look no further than the neon coloured ARTHOUSE Meath collection of honest and imaginative designs. Send someone tips on how to be a good valentine, boyfriend or girlfriend or say Happy Love Heart Day to your nearest and dearest.

With flowers set to be the most wanted gift this 'Love Heart Day' and 100% of proceeds of every sale going to ARTHOUSE Meath, there really is no excuse for not buying the perfect present for your loved one and bringing the romance to life.

NOTES:

ABOUT ARTHOUSE MEATH

ARTHOUSE Meath presents the skills and talents of men and women living with complex epilepsy, learning and physical difficulties. Over 70 artists work alongside instructors who enable groups or individuals to create artworks which are developed into designer products for sale. All work derives from the skills each artist brings to the enterprise and every contribution holds true value. All artists require varying degrees of support. Therefore it is imperative ARTHOUSE Meath offers a safe working environment with The Meath Epilepsy Charity's expert support. With high quality artwork and products ARTHOUSE Meath aims to create a platform of positive change in attitude towards people who are often marginalised. 100% of sales revenue goes towards sustaining the enterprise, helping it to grow and evolve.

ABOUT SCARLET & VIOLET

Established in 2006, Scarlet & Violet is a busy place full of flowers & scent, a lot of chatter, creativity and a whole load of leaves dropped on the floor. The boutique flower shop located in North West London is a charming and beautifully wild treasure trove. It's no secret that owner, Vic Brotherson, also author of two bestselling books on vintage flower arranging, was the floral mastermind behind Kate Moss wedding. Along with many other high profile clients, Scarlet & Violets creations have also been featured in Elle, Vogue and Harpers Bazaar.
